I, _____, agree not to hold Riverview Church or anyone employed by, volunteering with, or associated with Riverview Church responsible for any piece of art that I choose to display in The Corridor Gallery. This includes damage that may occur while art is being hung, taken down, and/or stored before being hung or while waiting for pick-up, or any work that may be damaged or stolen while on display. I understand that The Corridor Gallery at Riverview is located in an area that is often unsupervised and experiences high volumes of traffic.

I agree to leave the above mentioned work(s) on display in The Corridor Gallery until the end of the exhibition. I'm responsible for picking up my work at the conclusion of the exhibition.

I understand that I have the option to have my contact information displayed with my work so that if anyone is interested in purchasing it, that individual may contact me, as Riverview Church is not responsible for facilitating sales of artwork. I also understand that I have the option of donating proceeds from my work to Riverview Church's Compassion Ministry if I choose.

I would like my contact information displayed with my artwork in case someone is interested in purchasing it.

I would like to donate the sale of my artwork to Riverview's Compassion Ministry. Please contact me to discuss a price.
